

ESSENTIAL AMERICAN IDIOMS AND HELPFUL PHRASES

- ABC - fundamentals of something
- A-1 = A-one = A-number-one = A-OK - excellent, superior
- ace in the hole - someone or something important that is kept as a surprise until the right time so as to bring victory or success
- ad - an advertisement, advertising
- after you - please go first
- airhead - a stupid person
- a little bird told me - to have learned something from a mysterious, unknown, or secret source
- all day (night) long - the entire day (night)
- all kidding aside - laugh later; speaking seriously; finding a reason
- all the rage - popular
- a lot of = a bunch of = a good deal of = a great deal of = a good many = loads of = piles of = plenty of = scores of = a slew of = a gob of = gobs of = a heap of = heaps of = oodles of
- answer back - to answer in a rude way
- apple polisher - a person who does favors for a superior
- Are you all by yourself? - Are you alone?
- as American as apple pie - typically American
- attaboy - that's a boy! (admiration)
- at the eleventh hour - at the last minute, almost too late
- babe in the woods - inexperienced or innocent person
- backbreaker - difficult job, that may cause failure
- back-door - dishonest
- back-slapper = glad-hander - a person who is superficially friendly and is always trying to gain friends
- bad actor - a person or animal that is always fighting, quarreling, or doing bad things
- bad mouth someone - to say uncomplimentary or libelous things about someone, deliberately to damage another's reputation
- ball of fire - a person with great energy and ability, a person who can do something very well
- bark up the wrong tree - to choose the wrong person to deal with or the wrong course of action
- basket case - a hopeless situation (or person)
- be a good hand at - to be talented, gifted or skilled in some activity
- beans - money
- bear in mind - remember
- beat a dead horse - to argue about something that has been settled
- beat around (about) the bush - to talk about things without giving a clear answer, avoid the point
- beat one's brains out - to work vigorously; to try very hard to understand something difficult
- beat one's gums - to engage in idle talk, or meaningless chatter, generally to talk too much

- Beats me! - I don't know; I have no idea (often used in response to a question)
- beat the bushes for = beat the brush for - to try very hard to find or get something
- be at sea - don't know what to do, be confused, be lost
- be beat - to be tired; exhausted
- be beyond one's depth - to be beyond one's understanding or knowledge
- be broke - to be without money
- be called on the carpet - to be in trouble
- be caught off guard - to be caught by surprise
- be cocksure - to be overconfident; very sure
- be comfortable as an old shoe - to be pleasant and relaxed; easy to talk and work with
- be cool as a cucumber - to be very calm and brave; not nervous, worried, or anxious; not excited
- be crazy about = be mad about = be nuts about - to be excessively fond of someone or something
- be dead tired - to be very tired, exhausted, worn out
- be dry behind the ears - to be experienced; mature
- bed of nails - a difficult or unhappy situation or set of circumstances
- bed of roses = bowl of cherries - a pleasant easy place, job, or position; an easy life
- be Greek to someone - to be beyond comprehension
- be in a fix - to be in a bad situation or in trouble
- be in a good (bad) frame of mind - to be in a happy (unhappy) mood
- be in a pickle - to be in a troublesome or awkward situation
- be in a zone - to be in a daze; in a daydream
- be in charge - to be in authority or control
- be in deep water - to be in distress
- be in hot water = be in Dutch - to be in trouble
- be in the chips = be in the money - to have plenty of money; to be rich
- be in the clouds - to be far from real life; in dreams
- be in the dark - to be uninformed, confused
- be in the driver's seat = be in the saddle - to be in control
- be "in the know" - to be informed; know secrets or special details
- be in the mood for - to be interested in doing something
- be (feel) in the pink - be in good health; in fine shape
- be in the same boat - to be in the same usually bad conditions or situation
- be in the spotlight - to be in the center of attention
- be in the soup - to be in serious trouble; in disorder
- be made of money - to be very rich
- Be my guest - Do what you want; feel free; help yourself
- be neck and neck with - to be in close competition with
- be off one's rocker = be off one's trolley - not thinking correctly; silly; foolish
- be on board - to be hired as an employee, especially by the government

- be on cloud nine - to be very happy
- be one's ball - something one is interested in
- be on one's high horse - acting as if you are better than others
- be on one's knees - to be in a very weak condition
- be on one's mind - to be in one's thoughts
- be on pins and needles - to be nervous
- be on sale = be on special - to be sold for a special low price
- be on the air - to be broadcast on radio or TV
- be on the clock - to work, perform your duties
- be on the fence - to be undecided
- be on the go - to be very busy
- be on the hook - to be in a difficult position
- be on the house - free; without cost
- be on the safe side - to be well prepared
- be on the table - ready for discussion
- be on the tip of one's tongue - to be at the point of telling or recalling
- be on thin ice - to be in a dangerous situation
- be on time - to be exactly at the scheduled time
- be on top of the world = sitting on top of the world = sitting on high cotton - feeling pleased and happy; feeling successful
- be on track with time - to know the limits of time
- be on your own - to be independent
- be out of - without
- be out of date - to be no longer fashionable
- be out of hand - to be out of control
- be out of order - is not working (about machine); broken
- be out of question - impossible; an idea not able to be considered
- be out of stock - to be sold out; having none for sale or use
- be out of the swim - not active in business or social affairs
- be out of this world - terrific; super; very nice or satisfying
- be over one's head - to be beyond one's ability to comprehend
- be short of - not having enough
- be sick and tired of - to feel strong dislike for something
- be snowed under with - to be overwhelmed with
- be snug as a bug in a rug - to be comfortable; cozy
- best bib and tucker = glad rags = Sunday best - best clothes or outfit of clothing
- be stuck on - to be very much in love with; crazy about
- be thrown to the lions - to be placed in a difficult situation for which one is completely unsuited
- bet one's bottom dollar - be absolutely sure of something; bet your last dollar
- bet on the wrong horse - to base your plans on a wrong guess about the result of something; misjudge a coming event
- between the devil and the deep blue sea - between two dangers or difficulties, not knowing what to do
- be under the weather - to be slightly ill
- be up a creek without a paddle - to face a problem with nothing to help find a solution
- be up to one's neck in (work) - to be overwhelmed with (work)

- be wet behind the ears - to be inexperienced and naive
- be wild about - liking very much
- big brain - intelligent person
- big cheese = big gun = big shot = big wheel = big wig
 - an important person, a leader, a high official
 - something very popular
 - to suffer a defeat; fail
- big hit - a very talkative person, who can reveal a secret
- bite the dust - a person who is considered a disgrace to a particular group, especially a family
- blabbermouth - to change one's mind constantly about the value of something
- black sheep - to become angry
- blow hot and cold - cause a plan or operation to fail as a result of a stupid mistake
- blow one's top = blow one's cool - to be depressed
- blow the deal (work) - an unexpected event that strikes like lightning from the sky
- blue = down in the dumps - a mistake
- bolt from (out of) the blue - alcohol
- booboo - a place or person who acts as an obstacle to progress or free movement
- booze - the last word on a controversial issue; a final decision
- bottleneck - never used
- bottom line - money
- brand-new - a thank you note
- bread - Good luck!
- bread-and butter latter - to try very hard
- Break a leg! - stop being a couple (a boyfriend or girlfriend)
- break one's neck - to stop being friendly with
- break up with - something very simple and easy
- break with - coffee; bear
- a breeze - to stress a certain piece of information
- brew - to introduce a piece of information
- bring out a point - a general view of the whole situation
- bring up a point - inaccurate English
- broad picture - a person who doesn't go to the cafeteria or to a restaurant for lunch at work, but who brings his homemade lunch to work in order to save money
- broken English - a meal eaten in the late morning, a combination of breakfast and lunch
- brown-bagger - to refresh one's memory of or skill at by practice or review; improve; make perfect
- brunch - a dollar
- brush up = brush up on - a very old and shaky car that barely goes
- buck - a difficult, complicated or ambiguous situation or problem
- bucket of bolts - accepting full responsibility
- bucket of worms
- buck stops here

- build castles in the air - to make extravagant hopes and plans that will never be carried out
- bug - to annoy, to bother
- bull-headed - stubborn, inflexible
- bull session - a long informal talk about something by a group of persons; frank discussion on interesting topics
- bullshit = B.S. - a lie, dishonesty
- burn one's bridges behind you = burn one's bridges = burn one's boats - to eliminate any possibility of a retreat to a former position; to make a decision that one cannot change
- burn the candle at both ends - to do more than one ought to; to overextend oneself
- burn the midnight oil - to study late at night
- bury the hatchet - to make peace; to agree to end a quarrel
- butterflies in one's stomach - a queer feeling in the stomach caused by nervous fear or uncertainty; a feeling of fear or anxiety in the stomach
- butter up - to try to get the favor or friendship of (a person) by flattery or pleasantness; to praise or flatter excessively
- button one's lip = zip one's lip - to stop talking; keep a secret; be quiet
- buy a pig in a poke - to buy something sight unseen
- buy something for a song - to buy something very cheaply
- buy it - accept, agree
- by hook or by crook - by honest ways or dishonest in any way necessary
- by the skin of one's teeth - with very little margin
- by word of mouth - from person to person by the spoken word; orally
- call a spade a spade - to call a person or thing a name that is true but not polite; speak frankly and directly; to avoid euphemism
- call it a day - stop working for the day, go home
- call someone on the carpet - to call somebody before an authority for a scolding or reprimand
- calm down - relax
- cancer stick - a cigarette
- canned music - recorded music (not live)
- can of worms - a complex problem
- can't make heads or tails of something - can't understand something at all
- can't see beyond the end of one's nose - to have limited vision concerning decisions of the future
- Can you improve on that? - can you do better than that?
- carry coals to Newcastle - to do something unnecessary
- carry the ball - to take the most important or difficult part in an action or business
- catch cold - to become sick with a cold
- catch one red-handed - to apprehend a person during the act of committing an illicit or criminal act
- Catch 22 situation - an irresolvable contradiction or logic trap

- C.E.O. - Chief Executive Officer = the head of the company, factory, firm, etc.
- change one's mind - to decide to do something different
- check in (into) - register at a hotel
- check out (of) - leave a hotel; take material (from the library)
- cheesy - cheap; outmoded
- chew the fat - talking casually about nothing important
- chicken-brained - stupid, narrow-minded, unimaginative
- chicken = chicken-hearted = chicken-livered - cowardly, easily scared
- chickens come home to roost - words or acts come back to cause trouble for a person; something bad you said or did receives punishment; you get the punishment that you deserve
- child's play - easy; requiring no effort
- chow - food
- chow down - to eat
- cinch - something that's very easy to do
- clay pigeon - a person who, like a clay pigeon in target practice, is immobilized or is in a sensitive position and is therefore easily criticized or victimized
- clear the air - to remove angry feelings, misunderstanding, or confusion
- clear up the problem - to solve the problem
- Chill out! - Relax; Don't get excited
- climb on the bandwagon - to join a particular cause or political party
- clock watcher - a worker who always quits at once when it is time; a man who is in a hurry to leave his job
- closed book - a secret; something not known or understood
- close down = shut down - to stop all working, as in a factory; stop work entirely; stop operations in
- coast is clear - complete absence of danger; there is no one to see you
- cock-and-bull story - a story that is false
- cold fish - a queer person; a person who is unfriendly or does not mix with others
- cold water sandwich - a beer (Texas slang)
- come back to earth = come down to earth - to return to the real world; stop imagining or dreaming
- come down off one's high horse - to become less arrogant
- Come on! - Hurry! Move more rapidly!
- come out of one's shell - to stop being shy or bashful
- come to the point - to talk about the important thing; reach the central question or point
- come out smelling like a rose - to overcome difficulties; resolve a problem with money; be set free of blame or guilt; pass through danger
- come to the point - to arrive at the important part
- come true - actually happen or occur
- come up with - to present, announce, offer

- Congratulations on your success!
- cook one's goose - to ruin someone hopelessly; destroy one's future expectations or good name
- cool - neat, special, wonderful; superb
- Cool down! = Calm down! - Relax!
- Cool it! - Don't get excited; Keep calm; Stop talking about it
- cool one's heels - to wait for a long time
- cost an arm and a leg - very expensive
- couch potato - a person who is addicted to watching TV all day
- cover the high points - to discuss the main items
- crack a bottle - to open a new bottle of alcoholic beverage
- crack a joke - to tell a joke
- cream of the crop - the best of the group; the top choice (about people or things)
- cry wolf - to give a false alarm
- cultivate one's own garden - to take care of one's own needs before trying to take care of others
- cup of tea = dish of tea - what one likes to do, a special interest; something to think about, matter, etc.
- cut corners - to take a short way; to do only what you must do on a job, not more
- Cut it out! - Stop (doing) it!
- cut the ground from under someone - to make someone fail; upset someone's plans
- Da bomb - great, extremely cool
- dead duck - a person or thing in a hopeless situation or condition; one to whom something bad is sure to happen
- dead end - a street closed at one end; a situation that leads nowhere
- deadline - a completion date
- deadwood - anything or anybody worthless; useless
- deep water - serious trouble or difficulty
- deli - "delicatessen", a small shop
- Devil's advocate - one who advocates a bad cause for the sake of argument
- Dig it? - Do you understand?
- dig = dig out - to understand
- dipstick - a stupid person
- dirty laundry = skeleton in the closet - questionable or scandalous past activity
- dish the dirt - to gossip, to spread rumors about others
- do a snow job (on someone) - cheat; deceive; misrepresent
- doesn't see the forest for the trees - pay too much attention to details
- dog-and-pony show - simple, planned presentation
- dog days - extremely hot and humid days
- dog in the manger - a person who spitefully refuses to let someone else benefit from something for which he has no personal use
- dog-tired = done in - worn out; utterly exhausted
- dog's life - a life of misery, poverty, unhappiness

- Don't copy answers from your neighbor.
- don't cross that bridge before you come to it
 - don't worry about future events or trouble before they happen
- don't give a hang (a damn; a rap; a straw) = don't care a hang
 - don't have any interest or liking; don't care
- Don't jump into the water!
 - Wait a minute!
- don't knock it
 - don't criticize
- don't know if one is coming or going
 - don't know what to do; not to be able to think clearly
- don't leave any loose ends
 - finish the job completely
- Don't make waves
 - Don't disturb the situation; maintain the status quo
- Don't pull my leg
 - Don't make me believe something which is untrue, don't joke; don't flatter or praise insincerely
- Don't push the panic button
 - Don't panic; Stay calm
- don't see the forest for the tree
 - to pay too much attention to details
- don't take it too seriously = Don't take it to heart
 - don't be too sad about it
- do one a favor
 - do something to help someone
- do one's best
 - to try as hard as possible
- do or die
 - to make maximum effort
- do Q and A with
 - to Answer the Questions of the people
- do something for laughs
 - do it as a joke
- dot the i's and cross the t's
 - to be careful, thorough, and pay close attention to detail
- double-talk
 - something said that is worded, either on purpose or by accident, so that it may be understood in two or more different ways
- downtown
 - the main commercial area of a city
- Do you see much of him?
 - Do you see him often?
- drawback
 - obstacle; hindrance
- draw the line
 - to set a limit, as of acceptable behavior
- dressed to kill
 - to wear one's best or finest clothing
- drink like a fish
 - to drink alcoholic beverages in great quantities
- drive someone bananas = drive someone nuts = drive someone ape
 - to drive someone crazy; to excite someone to the highest point when he goes out of his mind
- drop dead
 - stop bothering someone; to go away or be quiet
- drop in
 - to visit someone without warning, informally
- drop someone a line
 - to write someone a short letter
- drop the other shoe
 - to say the next obvious thing
- dude
 - person, especially male; (a greeting)
- duck soup
 - easy; something very easy achieved
- dying for (a cup of coffee)
 - very eager to have (a cup of coffee)
- dying to
 - having a great desire to (do something)

- eager beaver - a person who is always eager to work or to do anything extra, perhaps to win the favor of his boss
- easy come, easy go - something you get quickly and easy may be lost or spent just as easily
- easy as ABC = easy as pie - easy to accomplish or solve
- easy money - a co-worker who doesn't do anything
- eat crow - to suffer a humiliating experience; to admit you are mistaken or defeated
- eat humble pie - to be forced to acknowledge one's deficiencies or errors; admit your error and apologize
- eat one's words = swallow one's words - to take back something you have said; admit something is not true
- egghead - a very intelligent person
- enjoy yourself - have a good time; be happy
- elbow one's way into (out of) - to force entry into a place by using one's elbows
- Even the smartest students can make silly mistakes.
- every last man = every man jack - each man without exception
- Everything has gone wrong today
- Everything is tip-top - Everything is OK
- Everything turned out all right
- explain oneself - to make your meaning plainer; make your first statement clearer
- express oneself - to say what you think or feel; put your thoughts or feelings into words by speaking or writing
- face facts - to be a realist
- face the music - to accept unpleasant consequences; accept your punishment
- face the truth - be honest with yourself
- fair and square - without cheating; honestly; frank and honest
- fair-haired boy - a person that gets special favors; favorite; pet
- fair play - equal and right action (to another person); justice
- fair-weather friend - a person who is a friend only when you are successful
- fall down on the job - to fail to work well
- fall flat (on one's face) - to fail
- fall off the wagon - to return to the consumption of an addictive, such as alcohol or drugs, after a period of abstinence
- Fancy meeting you here! -(an expression of surprise)
- Far-fetched - difficult to accept or believe
- fast buck = quick buck - money earned quickly and easily, and sometimes dishonestly
- fat cat - a rich person
- fat chance - little or no possibility; almost no chance
- fat is in the fire - something has happened that will cause trouble or make a bad situation worse
- feedback - reaction to a situation

- feel blue - to be depressed; to feel dreary
- feel for one - to have sympathy for one's situation
- feel free to do something - to take the liberty to do something
- feel in one's bones = know in one's bones - to have an idea or feeling but not know why
- feel like two cents - to feel embarrassed or foolish
- feel like a million dollars - to be in the best of health and spirit
- feel out of place - to experience the sensation of not belonging in a certain place or company
- feel sorry for - to feel regret, sympathy, or pity
- feel under the weather - to be sick; ill
- fence-sitter - a person unable to pick between two sides; a person who doesn't want to choose
- fifth wheel - a hanger-on; a person who serves no function
- fight fire with fire - to fight back in the same way one was attacked
- figure out - to decide; to understand
- fill the gap - to meet a need; make complete
- find fault - to find something wrong; complain; criticize
- find oneself (as a ...) - to find out what one is fitted for and succeed in that
- first and foremost - as the most important thing; first of all
- First come, first serve - the person who comes first will have his turn first
- First things first - other things must wait until the most important and necessary things are done
- fish or cut bait - decide what you want to do and stop wasting time; either act now or give someone else a chance or turn
- fish story - an unlikely or improbable tale
- fix up - to repair; to arrange
- flea in one's ear - an idea or answer that is not welcome; an annoying or surprisingly sharp reply or hint
- flick - a movie
- flower child - any person who cannot cope with reality
- flu - influenza
- fly blind - to do something without understanding what you are doing
- fly in the ointment - an unpleasant thing; something small that spoils your fun
- fly off the handle = lose one's temper - to become suddenly enraged or very angry
- follow one's heart - to do what one wishes to do rather than to follow the voice of reason
- follow one's nose - to go straight ahead; continue in the same direction
- fool around = mess around = play around = monkey around - to waste time; to spend time playing, fooling, or joking instead of being serious or working

- for ages - for a very long time
- for a song - at a low price; cheaply
- for good - forever; permanently
- for free - without having to pay; free
- for fun - an amusement, not seriously, as a joke
- for laughs - for pleasure; for fun; as a joke
- for the birds - worthless; unsatisfactory; unacceptable
- For real? - Is it true?
- fox - attractive, alluring person
- freebie - something that doesn't cost money
- free riding - something got free, without any efforts
- from Missouri - doubtful; suspicious
- geek - someone who works too hard, is more intelligent than usual, and is slightly unattractive

- get ahead - to do better than; progress more rapidly than

- get along with = get on with - to be friendly with; agree with; manage
- get back at (someone) - to do something bad to (someone who has done something bad to you); hurt in return

- get down to business (work) - to start being serious; begin to face a problem to be solved
- get going - to start; begin
- get hot under the collar - to get angry
- get into the habit of (doing something) - to become accustomed to

- get in touch with - to contact, to communicate with
- get it - to understand; comprehend; grasp
- get it through one's head - to understand or believe; make someone understand or believe

- Get lost! - Go away!
- Get off my back! - Stop criticizing or nagging me! Leave me alone!

- get on = get onto - to speak to (someone) roughly about something he did wrong; blame; scold
- get on with - to begin; start; continue
- get one's ducks in a row - to get everything ready
- get one's feet wet - to begin; to do something for the first time

- get one's goat - to make someone annoyed or angry
- get one's number = have one's number - to find out or know what kind of person someone is

- get out of hand - to get out of control
- Get out of my face! - Stay out of my sight!
- Get outta here! - You must be kidding!
- get ready for - to arrange; prepare
- Get real! - Be realistic! Don't be naive!
- get rid of (something) - to throw something away; to make something go away

- get some winks - to sleep
- get stoned - to become very drunk or high on some drug

- get the axe = get the boot = get the gate = get the sack = get the hook

- to be fired from a job; to be dismissed from the school for improper conduct, such as cheating
- get the bounce = get the gate = get the air
 - to lose one's sweetheart; not be kept for a friend or lover
- get the go-ahead = get the green light
 - to receive the permission or signal to start or to proceed
- get the goods on someone = have the goods on someone
 - to find out true and, often, bad information about someone; discover what is wrong with someone
- get the message
 - to understand clearly what is meant
- get the picture
 - to understand what someone tries to convey
- get to
 - to arrive at a certain place
- get together with
 - to agree; to come to agreement
- get-together
 - a party; a gathering
- get to the bottom of
 - to find out the real cause of
- get to the heart of
 - to find or to understand the most important thing about
- get under one's skin
 - to bother; upset; irritate; annoy
- get up on the wrong side of the bed-
 - to act unpleasant because the day got off to a bad start
- get what's coming to someone = get one's
 - to receive the good or bad that you deserve; get what is due to you; get your share
- get wind of
 - to get news of; hear rumors about; find out about
- gild the lily = paint the lily
 - to add unnecessarily to something already beautiful or good enough
- girl Friday
 - a secretary; very dependable office worker
- give a cold shoulder
 - to act unfriendly towards someone
- give (someone) a hand
 - to help, assist; to applaud, clap
- give a hard time
 - to give trouble by what you do or say
- give a little hand
 - to give a prompt, a cue; to remind; to help
- give a rundown on
 - to summarize; give a summary of; explain briefly
- give it a try
 - try to do it
- give it some thought
 - to wait and see
- give it to someone
 - to give punishment to someone; beat; to scold
- Give me a break!
 - Don't ask me to do that now
- give one a piece of one's mind
 - say what you really think to someone
- give one a ring = give a buzz
 - to call on the telephone
- give one some of his own medicine
 - to treat someone the way he treats others
- give one song and dance about
 - foolish or uninteresting talk; a long lie or excuse
- give one the eye
 - to look at, especially with interest and liking;

- give one a tough time
 - give the green light
 - give (something) thumbs down
 - give (something) thumbs up
 - give up the ship

 - go about one's business
 - go along with
 - go bananas

 - go behind one's back

 - God knows = God only knows = goodness knows = heaven knows
 - go Dutch

 - go fly a kite

 - gofer = go-for
 - go for it
 - go jump in the lake
 - goldbrick
 - goldfish bowl

 - gone goose = gone gosling
 - gone with the wind
 - good egg = good scout
 - good riddance
 - goof
 - goof off = veg out
 - goof up
 - (one's) goose is cooked
 - go overboard

 - go over one's head
 - go stag

 - go steady

 - go through hell and high water
 - go through the mill

 - go toe to toe
 - go to pieces
 - go to the dogs
 - go to town

 - go without saying
 - go with the flow
 - grand
 - gravy train
- to look at, especially in a cold or unfriendly way
 - to make things difficult for a person
 - to give approval to begin or start
 - to disapprove (something)
 - to approve (something)
 - to stop fighting and surrender; stop trying or hoping to do something
 - to mind one's own affairs
 - to agree; follow
 - get very excited; become sad; become worried; become overly dedicated
 - to say something without another's knowledge
 - I don't know and no one else knows
 - to go on an outing or date on which each person pays his or her own way, pays for himself or herself
 - to go away; leave (used to show that you do not accept someone's ideas)
 - a low ranking employee, errand boy
 - to accept a challenge
 - to go away and quit being a bother
 - a lazy person
 - a situation in which it is not possible to keep things secret
 - a person for whom there is no hope
 - gone forever; past
 - a nice fellow; a friendly person
 - a loss that one is glad about
 - a silly and foolish person
 - fool around; to be lazy; to do nothing
 - to make a mistake
 - one's chances are ruined
 - to go to extremes; act excitedly without thinking
 - to be too difficult to understand
 - to go to a party without a companion of the opposite sex
 - to go on dates with the same person all time
 - to go through danger or trouble
 - to have experience; be tested; undergo hardship
 - to compete directly and aggressively
 - to lose control; become very nervous
 - to go to ruins; be destroyed
 - to work hard and fast with great force or energy
 - be clear, be obvious
 - take things as they come
 - one thousand dollars
 - a job or project that requires little effort but yields considerable profits

- grease one's palm = grease the palm - to pay a person for something done or given; bribe
- grease the wheel - to do something or act to make something go smoothly
- greasy spoon - a small, inexpensive restaurant
- green - inexperienced
- guesstimate - a close guess based on experience (guess + estimate)
- gut feeling - an instinctive reaction
- gut talk - a sincere, honest talk
- half the battle - a large part of the work
- handle with kid gloves - to treat very carefully
- handwriting on the wall - a sign that something bad will happen
- hang around - to stay close by; wait
- hang on to your hat = hold on to your hat = hold your hat - watch out; be prepared; get ready for a surprise
- happy hour - the after work promotional specials at a bar or restaurant
- hard nut to crack = tough nut to crack - something difficult to understand or to do
- hard times - times when life is not easy
- hassle - a troublesome situation; to bother, annoy
- hatchet man - junior executive who is given the task of firing employees
- have all your eggs in one basket - to put all interests in a single person or thing
- have a ball = have a blast = have a good time - to enjoy oneself
- have a big mouth - to talk too much
- have an ear for - have a taste or a talent for; be sensitive to something
- have an eye for - to be able to judge correctly of; have good taste in
- have a finger in the pie - to participate in; have part interest or responsibility
- have a good head for - to have a special talent in a certain area
- have a hand in - to have a part in or influence over; to be partly responsible for something
- have a hunch - to have an intuitive feeling
- have a leg up on somebody - to have an advantage over someone
- have a mind of one's own - to be independent in one's thinking and judgment
- have a monkey on one's back - to have an unsolved or nagging problem
- have a nose for it - to have a talent for something
- have a sweet tooth - to enjoy eating sweet food
- have a tiger by the tail - to have a problem that is much bigger than it was thought to be
- have a tough time - to have difficulties
- have a very high (low) opinion of somebody - to think that somebody is very good (bad)
- have a word with - to discuss something with
- have character - to be a strong person who acts according to his/her beliefs

- have egg on one's face - to be in an embarrassing situation
- have in stock - have something ready to sell or use
- have kittens - to become very much worried or upset
- have one's back to the wall - to be in a trap with no way to escape
- have one's cake and eat it too - wanting the advantages of two things
- have one's hands full - to be very busy
- have one's number - to know someone well
- have rocks in one's head - to be stupid
- have something in hand - to control
- have something on the ball - to be smart, clever; to be skilled and have necessary know-how
- have something on the table - to have something up front, up for discussion
- have something up one's sleeve - to have something concealed
- have the guts (to do something) - to be brave enough to do something difficult or dangerous
- have the heart - to have the courage
- have the time of one's life - to have a wonderful time
- have too many irons in the fire - to be engaged in too many activities
- have under one's thumb - to be obedient to another; under one's control
- heart-to-heart talk - speaking freely and seriously about a private subject
- Hello!? - Are you there? I'm trying to get your attention; Are you awake?; Are you stupid?
- hell-on-wheels - a short-tempered, nagging person, who constantly criticize other people even without any reason
- he-man - a strong, brave and healthy man
- hen-party - a party to which only women or girls are invited
- Here you are! - take this
- hide one's light under a bushel - to be very shy and modest and not show your abilities or talents
- high and dry - without anyone to help
- high-hat - to treat others as inferior; look down on
- hike - to travel in the country or mountains on foot
- hit below the belt - to say something that is often too personal, usually irrelevant and always unfair
- hit between the eyes - to make a strong impression on; surprise
- hit it off - to enjoy one another's company, to become friendly
- hit the books - to study
- hit the bull's-eye - to go to the important part of the matter
- hit the ceiling = hit the roof - to become extremely angry; lose temper
- hit the deck - to get up from the bed
- hit the hay = hit the rack = hit the sack - to go to bed
- hit the jackpot - to be very lucky or successful; to win the big prize in a game
- hit the nail on the head - do or say the correct thing; describe perfectly; be exactly correct

- hit the road - to leave; go
- hit town - to arrive
- Hold it - Wait; Stop it
- hold it down - be quiet; stop making noise
- hold one's tongue - be silent
- Hold your horses - Wait a minute, please
- honeymoon is over - the first happy period of friendship and cooperation is over

- hook up - connection between two people or objects
- hooked on - addicted to cigarettes, coffee, tea, drugs or alcohol

- hope against hope - to try to hope when things look black
- horn in on (conversation) - to interfere
- horse of a different color = horse of another color - a different matter entirely

- horse opera - a Western movie in which cowboys and horses play a major part

- horse sense - plain, practical common sense
- hot - good, well; popular; sexy
- hot air - nonsense; exaggerated talk
- hot news = the latest poop - the latest information or news
- hot potato - a difficult or controversial problem
- hot stuff - coffee
- house of cards - a poorly founded plan, hope, action
- how about = what about - (used to ask for a decision, action, opinion, explanation)

- How come? - Why?
- How goes it? - How are you and your affairs in general?
- hunky dory - fine; OK
- hush-hush - confidential; secret
- hush money - a bribe
- hustle up - to hurry up
- I can't figure it out - can't understand
- iceberg principle - the idea that in any situation only a small part of a problem will be visible

- ice-breaking party - a get-together party for a new company
- I.D. - identification document
- I'd be pleased to help you if I can
- I didn't quite catch what you said - I don't hear it
- idiot box - a TV set
- I'd like to have a word with him - to speak with him
- I don't like being ordered around - I don't like people always telling me what to do
- IDWIC - I do what I can
- if need be - if the need arises
- I have to face these events on my own
- I have to run - I have to leave immediately
- I know him by name - I have never met him, but I know who he is

- I'll bet you my bottom dollar - I'm absolutely sure
- I'll tell you what - Here is an idea
- I mean what I say
- I'm all ears - I'm ready to listen
- I'm broke - I don't have any money
- I'm completely in the dark - I don't understand

- I'm done - I have finished my work
- I'm full - I have eaten so much that I can't eat any more
- I'm lost! - I don't know what to do (to say, etc)
- I'm on your side - I agree with you
- I'm outdoor type - I like to go out, especially to walk in the country
- I'm pressed for time - I'm in a hurry
- I'm rather tied up at the moment - I'm busy right now
- I'm short of cash - I don't have enough money
- I'm so touched! - I'm feeling strong emotions
- I'm the type of person who needs as much information as possible, even if the news isn't good
- I'm torn! - I'm uncertain, not sure what to decide
- I'm up to my ears in work - I have a lot of work to do
- I'm with you - I agree with you
- in brief = in short = in a word - briefly; in summary
- Indian giver - a person who gives one something, but later asks for it back
- I need to wash up - I need to wash my face and hands
- I never touch coffee - I never drink coffee
- in hot water - in deep trouble
- in nice weather - when (if) the weather is fine
- in one's heart of hearts - deep down in one's innermost feelings
- in short supply - not enough
- in the black - profitable, not showing a financial loss
- in the end - at last, finally
- in the long run - looking ahead to the distant future
- in the red - unprofitable, showing a financial loss
- in time - not late; early enough
- in two shakes of lamb's tail - quickly; in no time at all
- I propose a toast in honor of ...
- I ran out of money - I spent all my money
- I see your point - I see what you mean; I understand what you are saying
- I take it from your silence that you don't want to do that!
- it costs next to nothing - it costs very little
- It figures! = It makes sense! = It makes a point!
- It gives me great pleasure to be here today
- It goes without saying that - It's obvious; easily understood
- It had to be done at short notice - with very little warning time
- It has nothing to do with you - it is not your problem
- It's a deal! - OK; It's agreed!
- It's beyond me - I don't understand
- It's beyond my means - It is too expensive for me to buy it
- It's child's play = It's a snap = No sweat = a piece of cake - it is very easy
- It's high time - It's overdue
- It's no big deal - It's not very difficult
- It's no use sitting here - It's not necessary to sit (and wait) here
- It's OK with me - I agree; I'm satisfied
- It's out of question - it is impossible
- It's time to turn in - It's time to go to bed

- It's your deal! - It's your responsibility so you make the plans
- It was wise of you to do it
- I've changed my mind - I've decided to do something different
- I've got something on my mind! - I'm worrying about something
- I want to make it plain that... - easy to see; easy to understand
- I want to put a question to the speaker
- jawbreaker - a word or name that is hard to pronounce
- jerk - stupid or annoying person
- jock - someone good at sports
- Joe Doakes - a name used informally for the average man
- John Doe - a name used for an unknown person
- John Hancock = John Henry - your signature; your name in writing
- John Q. Public - a name used informally for the average citizen
- jump on = jump all over = land on = land all over (someone) - to scold; blame; criticize
- jump the gun - to go first, before you are supposed to, to do something too early
- jump through a hoop - to do whatever you are told to do
- jump to a conclusion - to make a quick but unjustified decision
- jump to conclusions - to make a hasty decision before the information is complete
- junker - an old car in bad condition
- junk food - snack foods that are not good for you
- just about - nearly; almost
- just for the fun of it - merely as a matter of amusement
- just in case - for an emergency
- just now - at the present time
- just what the doctor ordered - a good thing; exactly what is needed or wanted
- K - a thousand
- keep after someone - to be like someone
- keep an eye on = keep one's eye on = have one's eye on - to watch something carefully; to look after something, so it doesn't get harmed or stolen
- keep a straight face - to remain serious; try not to laugh
- keep cool - to stay calm
- keep from - to hold oneself back from
- keep in hand - to control
- Keep in mind = Bear in mind - Remember it!
- keep in touch with - to be in communication with
- Keep it down! = Keep cool - to keep from progressing
- keep it under one's hat - keep it a secret
- keep it up! - keep doing the same
- keep one in the picture - to keep someone informed; advised
- keep one's chin up - to be brave; face trouble with courage
- keep one's ear to the ground - to try to get any information you can get
- keep one's eyes on the ball - to pay attention to something
- keep one's feet on the ground - to understand what can be done

- keep one's fingers crossed - to hope that something will happen as one wants it to happen; to hope that nothing will happen to bring bad luck or to ruin one's plans
- keep one's head - don't get excited
- keep one's nose clean - to stay out of trouble
- keep one's nose out of - don't be bothering
- keep one's shirt on - to wait; don't be in a hurry
- keep one's word - to fulfill one's promise
- keep out of - to stay out of something
- keep the ball rolling - to continue the action or activity
- keep track of - to know about changes; keep a count or record
- keep up with the Joneses - striving to achieve or own as much as the people around you
- kick back - to pay money illegally for favorable contract arrangements; to relax
- kick in the pants = kick in the teeth - unexpected scorn or insult when praise was expected
- kick off - to begin
- kick off = kick the bucket - to die
- kick up one's heels - to have a merry time; celebrate
- kill time - to waste time
- kill two birds with one stone - to accomplish two objectives with a single action
- kind of = kinda - rather, more or less, a little
- kiss (someone or something) goodbye - to lose or give up someone or something forever
- knee pad promotion - a promotion of a complete idiot to a better paying job
- Knock it off - Stop it; shut up; cease
- knock oneself out - to work very hard; make a great effort
- knockout - a beautiful woman, a handsome man
- knotty problem - a very complicated problem to solve
- know-it-all - a person who acts as if he knows all about everything
- know one's onions = know one's stuff - to have experience and skill in an activity
- know people in high places - to be connected with people in power
- know something inside out = know what's what = know like the back of one's hand - know something very well
- know the ropes - to be familiar with the details; have experience in the situation
- know the score - to understand the situation; be informed
- know which side one's bread is buttered on - to know who can help you and try to please him
- lay an egg - to fail; to have one's efforts fall flat
- lay the card on the table - to explain all the details; make one's intentions clear
- leave a bad taste in one's mouth - make one feel disgusted
- leave in the lurch - to leave one alone in trouble; refuse to help or support
- legless - so drunk that you can't stand up

- loaded - being really drunk
- lemon - something that is defective
- lend a hand = give a hand = bear a hand
 - to help
- let bygones be bygones - to let the past be forgotten
- let George do it - to expect someone else to do the work
- let it lay - forget it; leave it alone
- Let me tell you something - Let me give you some advice, let me explain something to you
- let one's hair down - to behave informally; act freely and naturally
- Let's change the subject.
- let's don't = don't let's - let's not; I suggest that we don't
- Let's get going
- Let's get started
- let sleeping dogs lie - don't cause or make trouble if you don't have to
- Let's play heads or tails - let's throw a coin in the air to see which side comes down on top
- let the cat out of the bag - to reveal a secret unintentionally
- lick one's boots - to flatter or act like a slave; do anything to please another
- lie down on the job - to purposely fail to do your job
- like a fish out of water - helpless; out of one's accustomed surroundings
- like water off a duck's back - having no effect; without changing one's feelings or opinions
- lip service - support shown by words only and not by actions
- listen to reason - to accept advice; be reasonable
- live and let live - to live in the way you prefer and let others live as they wish without being bothered by you
- live from hand to mouth - to live on little money without saving for the future
- live in the fast lane - to live a full and very active life pursuing wealth and success
- lock the barn door after the horse is stolen
 - to be careful or try to make something safe when it is too late
- lone wolf - a man who likes to work or live alone
- long face - a sad disappointed look
- look after - to take care of
- look back - to review the past; think of what has happened
- look down on = look down upon - to think of a person or thing as less good or important
- look forward to - to expect
- look into - to find out the facts about; study; inspect
- look like the cat that ate the canary = look like the cat that swallowed the canary
 - to appear very proud and satisfied
- Look out! = Watch out! - Be careful!
- look over - check, examine carefully
- look sharp - to appear stylish; good
- look up the word in the dictionary - try to find its meaning in the dictionary

- lose heart - to lose hope of success
- lose one's head = lose one's temper = lose one's cool
 - to become excited; lose one's normal self control; to become angry
- lose one's heart - to fall in love
- lose one's shirt - lose all one's money
- lose one's tongue - to be highly embarrassed or surprised
- lose one's way - become lost
- lose touch - to fail to keep in contact or communication
- lose track - to forget about something; not stay informed
- loud mouth = big mouth - a noisy, boastful or foolish talker
- lucky dog - a very fortunate person
- mad as a hatter - very angry
- mad as a hornet = mad as hops = mad as a wet hen
 - very angry; in a fighting mood
- main squeeze - the top ranking person in an organization or in a neighborhood; a boss
- make a big deal about = make a federal case of = make a mountain out of a molehill - to exaggerate an insignificant event
- make a clean breast of something - to admit your guilt; to tell about your wrong doing
- make a fuss over - to quarrel about someone or something; to worry
- make a hit - to become very popular
- make a living - to earn one's livelihood
- make a long story short - to summarize a lengthy narrative
- make a scene - to act hysterically
- make certain - be sure
- make clear - to clarify, explain
- make ends meet - to earn enough income to provide for basic needs
- make fun of - to joke about; laugh at
- make little of - to make something seem unimportant
- make mincemeat out of - to destroy completely
- make much of - to make something seem of more worth or importance than it really is
- make one's bed and lie in it - to be responsible for what you have done
- make oneself at home - act as if you were in your own home
- make oneself comfortable - to choose a soft chair, etc.
- make one's mouth water - to look or smell very good
- make sense - understandable
- make sure - be certain
- make up one's mind - to decide
- make waves - to cause difficulty
- man in the street - the man who is just like most other men; the ordinary man
- Many Happy Returns - (greetings said to someone on their birthday)
- many moons ago - a long, long time ago
- markdown - a reduction in price
- mark one's words - to pay close attention to what one says
- master of ceremonies = M.C. = emcee

- Mcjob
 - the person introducing participants in a show
 - low-paying position in service companies (as McDonalds Company)
- mean business
 - to be serious
- meat-and-potatoes man
 - prefer to eat meat and potatoes as the main meal
- meatball
 - a dull, boring, or uninteresting person
- meat of the matter/question
 - an important, critical point
- megabucks
 - a large amount of money
- Mickey Mouse
 - a stupid person; a policeman; a white man as used by blacks; something very primitive, unsophisticated
- mind one's P's and Q's
 - to pay attention to details
- mind one's own business
 - to not interfere in the affairs of others
- mind your (pronunciation)
 - be careful about your (pronunciation)
- miss the boat = miss the bus
 - to lose an opportunity; misunderstand; to fail because of slowness; to delay doing something until it is too late
- monkey business
 - any activity that is dishonest, illegal, objectionable
- monkey on one's back
 - the responsibility for
- motor-mouth
 - someone talking non-stop
- Mud in your eye!
 - Cheers! (a cheering exclamation when people drink)
- music to one's ears
 - a good thing to hear
- My heart isn't in it!
 - I have lost interest in it
- My heart sank
 - I feel very sad, embarrassed
- My lips are sealed
 - I will not give away a secret
- nada
 - nothing (from Spanish)
- nail one to the cross
 - to impose or inflict the most severe punishment
- neat
 - cool; great
- needle in a haystack
 - something that will be very hard to find
- Never mind!
 - Don't worry! Forget about it
- Never say die!
 - Don't quit; don't be discouraged
- new money
 - people who have become rich recently
- news flash
 - short piece of important news
- Niger in the woodpile
 - something unexpected that changes a situation; a hidden factor or trick
- night owl
 - a person who sleeps during the day and stays up or works during the night
- nine times out of ten
 - very often
- nine-to-five job
 - a typical office job that starts at 9 a.m. and ends at 5 p.m. with a one-hour lunch break at 12 noon or 1 p.m.
- No charge! = It's on the house! = There's no cost = It's free
- no go = no deal = no dice = no sale = no soap
 - unsuccessful; of no use; certainly not
- no good
 - not satisfactory; not approved
- no matter
 - regardless
- no picnic
 - something that requires great effort to do
- no strings attached
 - freely with no limitations
- nothing to write home about
 - not special in any way
- not know which way to turn = not know which way to jump

- not the only fish in the sea
 - not to know beans about
 - no two ways about it
 - No way!
 - no wonder
 - nut
 - nuts and bolts of
 - off-color = off-colored
 - off-the-book job
 - Oh dear!
 - old boy network
 - old hand (at)
 - old hat
 - once in a blue moon
 - on earth
 - one damn thing after another = ODTAA
 - on foot
 - on hand
 - on schedule
 - on second thought
 - on the air
 - on the rocks
 - on time
 - open house
 - open one's heart
 - other fish to fry
 - paddle one's own canoe
 - page:
 - turn the page;
 - look at (the top of) the next page;
 - open the book to page 6;
 - on the next page;
 - on page 6.
 - pain in the neck
 - Pardon me
 - Pardon?
 - parting of the ways
 - pass the buck
 - pay attention to
- not know what to do to get out of trouble
 - one of many; not the only one available
 - to know nothing about
 - no other choice; no alternative
 - Absolutely not! Forget it! Never!
 - naturally; it is not surprising
 - an odd or crazy person; a fan
 - the basic facts or details of something
 - in bad taste; not of the proper kind for polite society; dirty
 - business done without records as a means to avoid taxation; job paid in cash
 - What a nuisance! How surprising!
 - a system consisting of people who went to the same school and help each other to get good jobs
 - an experienced and highly skilled expert
 - someone or something old-fashioned; not new
 - (to do something) very rarely
 - (phrase used to make questions stronger: Why on earth did you do that?)
 - if there is one problem, there will be more
 - walking (to go there on foot)
 - in someone's possession; ready
 - as planned or expected; at the right time
 - after reconsidering
 - on the radio or TV
 - served with ice cubes
 - happening at the right time
 - a party that is open to anyone who wants to come
 - to talk about your feelings honestly
 - other things to do; other plans
 - to work without help; support oneself
 - start at the top line on page 6;
 - someone or something extremely bothersome, unpleasant
 - Please let me pass; Please forgive me
 - What did you say?
 - the point where a road divides; a deciding point
 - pass a problem or responsibility to another instead of taking care of it yourself; to shift blame from oneself to another person
 - to observe and listen carefully

- pay the piper = pay the fiddler - to suffer the results of being foolish or wasting money
- pay through the nose - to pay unreasonably high prices
- peanuts - very little money
- pep talk - a short talk designed to inspire or create enthusiasm
- perform very well - to work very well; to get good results
- petty person - a person who creates a lot of trouble by his constant criticism about minor and unimportant details
- piece of cake - easy, simple
- pick a quarrel - to seek the opportunity for a fight or a quarrel
- pick holes in - to criticize or find fault with something, such as a speech, a statement, a theory
- pick on somebody - to choose someone in order to attack him or her
- pie in the sky - an unrealistic wish or hope
- pig in a poke - an unseen bargain; something bought without looking at it carefully
- pissed off - angry, upset
- plain Jane - a common or simple looking young woman or girl
- play ball with someone - to cooperate with someone
- play fair - to do what is right to others; act in a fair and truthful way
- play fast and loose - to act so carelessly or unfairly that people cannot depend on you; be very unreliable
- play hooky - to avoid going to school
- play possum - to pretend to be asleep; try to escape attention by inactivity
- play the field - to date many different people
- play tricks on - to make another the victim of some trick or joke
- play with fire - to be engaged in a dangerous act
- polish the apple - to try to make someone like you; to try to win favor by flattery
- pooped out - tired; exhausted
- poor as a church mouse - extremely poor
- pop quiz - unannounced short test
- pot calling the kettle black - criticizing others for the very fault one possesses
- potluck dinner = covered dish dinner - a meal in which each guest brings part of the dinner
- pour oil on troubled waters - to quiet a quarrel
- powder room - the ladies' rest room
- pretty penny - a lot of money
- promise the moon - to promise something impossible
- pull one's leg - to make someone believe something which is wrong as a joke; to tease or fool someone; flatter or praise insincerely
- pull one's weight - to do your full share of work

- pull strings = pull wires - to use personal connections to obtain a position; use personal influence
- pull the wool over one's eyes - to fool someone into thinking well of you
- pull together - to join your efforts
- pull yourself together - to become calmer
- push the panic button - to panic; get extremely excited
- put all one's eggs in one basket - to place all efforts or hopes in a single person or thing
- put an end to = put a stop to - to stop
- put in a word for - to speak in favor of someone
- put in one's place - remind someone of low rank or position
- put it on the line = lay it on the line - to say plainly; tell truthfully
- put on an unhappy (happy) face - to have sad (happy) expression of your face
- put one in the picture - to inform someone of all the facts about a situation
- put one's best foot forward - try to make the best possible impression
- put one's cards on the table - to be frank
- put oneself in another's place = put oneself in another's shoes - to understand another person's feeling imaginatively
- put one's finger on it - to be specific, explain
- put one's foot in one's mouth = put one's foot in it - to say something one should not have said; hurt another's feelings without intending to
- put ones' heads together = lay ones' heads together - to plan or consider things together
- put one's shoulder to the wheel - to cooperate; help
- put on one's thinking cap - to think hard and long about some problem
- quick and dirty - cheap, easy but often second-rate solution to a problem; done fast but not well
- quick on the trigger = trigger happy - fast at answering questions or solving problems
- R and R - rest and relaxation (a vacation)
- rainy day - a time of need (especially for money)
- rap - to talk
- rat race - a confusing scramble or way of living that does not seem to have purpose
- read between the lines - to understand all of a writer's meaning by guessing
- read one like a book - to understand someone completely
- read one's mind - to know what someone else is thinking
- read someone's mind - know what someone is thinking
- red flag - warning sign
- red herring - something designed to divert an opponent's attention in argument from the central issue; misleading story
- regular guy = regular fellow - a friendly person who is easy to get along with
- rents - parents
- ride a dead horse - don't change one's way of doing things

- riding for a fall - behaving in an overconfident way that is likely to lead to trouble
- ring a bell - to make you remember something; sound familiar
- rob Peter to pay Paul - to harm one person in order to do good to another
- rock the boat - to make trouble and risk losing or spoiling a plan
- Roll up your sleeves = Roll your sleeves up - Get ready to do some hard work
- room and board - a room for rent with meals included
- rosy scenario = Rosie Scenario - very optimistic prediction
- rotten egg - a person whose character or way of acting is not good
- roughly speaking - speaking in general; approximately
- round-eyed = wide-eyed = large-eyed - very much surprised
- royal road - an easy path
- R.S.V.P. - "Repondez s'il vous plait"=Please reply to this invitation
- rub salt into one's wounds - to deliberately add pain when one feels shame, regret or defeat
- rug rat - a child
- rule of thumb - a practical principle that comes from the wisdom of experience and is usually but not always valid
- rule the roost - to be leader or boss
- run for office - to try to get elected
- run off at the mouth - to talk too much; be unable to stop talking
- run out of - to have no more
- Run that by me again! - Repeat what you just said, as I couldn't understand you!
- rush hour - the time in the morning and late afternoon when people are going to or coming from work
- sacred cow - anything or anyone that is beyond criticism
- safe and sound - not harmed; safe and not damaged
- sail close to the wind - to be on the borderline between legality and illegality
- sail under false colors - to pretend to be what you are not
- salad days - time of youth when one is inexperienced or "green" like salad
- sales car dealer - not reliable person; a cheating person
- salt of the earth - a basically good or valuable person
- sandbag - to mislead, attack from behind
- save one's neck = save one's skin - to save one from danger or trouble
- say something tongue in cheek - not be really serious
- say uncle = cry uncle - to say that you surrender, give up
- scapegoat - one, who is blamed
- schmooze - to chat, to talk casually
- scratch one's back - to do something kind and helpful for someone or to flatter him in the hope that he will do something for you

- Search me! = Beats me! - I don't know! How should I know?
- second thought - a change of ideas or opinions resulting from more thought or study
- second to none - excellent; first rate
- see beyond one's nose = see beyond the end of one's nose - to make wise judgments
- see into - to know or understand the real nature or meaning of
- see one off - to go to say or wave goodbye to
- see one home - to walk a person home
- see red - to become very angry
- see the light - to understand or agree
- see through - to understand the real meaning of or reason for
- seize the opportunity - to exploit a chance
- self-made - having achieved wealth, fame and success on one's own
- sell down the river - to betray
- sell short - to think that someone or something is less good or valuable than is true; underestimate
- sell snow to Eskimos - to sell something to people who already have a large amount of the same goods
- setback - a disadvantage; a delay
- set one's face against - to be very much against
- set one's heart on - to want very much
- set one's mind at rest about - to reassure someone about
- set one's mind on - to determined to; decide to
- set the world on fire - to do something outstanding
- settle on - to decide which one to choose among different alternatives
- shake a leg - to hurry
- shape up or ship out - either improve one's disposition (behavior), or quit (leave)
- sharp = sharp as a tack - bright; intelligent; smart; efficient
- ships that pass in the night - people who meet for a brief but intense moment and then part, never to see each other again
- shoe is on the other foot - the opposite is true: places are changed
- shoot from the hip - to act or talk rashly and irresponsibly
- shoot off one's mouth = shoot off one's face - to express one's opinion loudly
- shoot the breeze = shoot the bull = bat the breeze = fan the breeze - to talk; conversation
- shout from the housetops = shout from the rooftops - to tell everyone, especially one's own personal business
- silver lining - the happy part of a situation that seems difficult
- sink-or-swim situation - a situation in which we must save ourselves by our own means or else fail
- sit on one's hands - to do nothing
- sit on the fence - to remain neutral; to refuse to take sides in a dispute
- six bits - 75 cents

- sixty-four dollar question - a most important and difficult to answer question
- size up the situation - to make an evaluation of the situation
- skate on thin ice - to take a chance; risk danger
- skeleton in the closet - a potentially embarrassing secret
- skip it - to forget all about it
- skirt around - to avoid something
- sky is the limit - there is no limit to something
- slave-driver - a boss or employer who exacts the utmost from his employees
- sleep on it - postpone a decision until the next day
- slip of the pen - the mistake of writing something different from what you planned
- slip of the tongue = slip of the lip - an error of speech; something said unintentionally
- small talk - general idle conversation
- smell a rat - to become suspicious; to suspect
- Smell the flowers! - Take time to enjoy yourself
- snake in the grass - an unfaithful traitor
- snap - something that's very easy to do
- so be it = be it so - let it be that way; all right
- so far, so good - until now things have gone well
- so it goes - that's life (c'est la vie)
- solid - really good; cool
- something slipped one's mind - to forget something
- so much for - enough has been said or done about
- son of a gun - a bad person
- sort of - rather, somewhat
- spamming - mass marketing using e-mail addresses
- speak off the cuff - to speak without preparation
- speak off the top of one's head - to speak without thinking hard; quickly
- speak one's mind - to say openly what you think
- speak the same language - to have similar feelings, thoughts, tastes
- special offer - goods which are on sale at a reduced price
- spell out - to explain something very clearly
- spill the beans - to tell the secret
- spit into wedding cake - to spoil someone's pleasure by doing or saying something harsh
- split hairs about - to argue over minor matters
- spread oneself too thin - to try to do too many things at one time
- square peg in a round hole - a person who does not fit into a job or position
- stab in the back - an act or lie that hurts a friend or trusting person
- stand on one's own feet - to be (financially) independent
- stand one's ground - to refuse to change one's opinion or decision
- start the ball rolling - to begin, start something
- state-of-the-art - the best and the latest, most advanced
- steal one's thunder - to upstage someone; to destroy the effect of what someone does or says by doing or saying the same thing first
- step into one's shoes - to do what someone else usually does after he has stopped doing it

- Step on it! - Hurry up!
- stew in one's own juice - to suffer from something that you have caused to happen yourself
- stick together - to remain close together in a situation
- stick to one's knitting = tend to one's knitting - to do your own job and not bother other people
- stick to the point - to stay on course during a discussion
- still waters run deep - quiet people probably are profound thinkers
- stock answer - standard or ready for use reply
- stone wall = brick wall - something hard to overcome; an idea that is hard to change
- stop by - visit informally; go to see
- straight from the horse's mouth - directly from a reliable source or a person
- straight from the shoulder - frankly and directly
- straw boss - the boss of a few workers who is himself under another boss
- straw in the wind - a small sign that hints of something that is about to happen
- strike out at - to attack someone verbally or physically
- string along - to deceive; fool
- Sure thing! - Of course; certainly
- swap (switch) horses in midstream- to change leaders or adopt a different strategy in the middle of a course of action
- sweet deal - outstanding opportunity; excellent bargain; wonderful career
- swim against the current = swim against the stream - to do opposite of what most people want to do
- swing one's weight - to use your personal power to get something done
- take a back seat - to accept a poorer or lower position
- take a break - to have a brief rest period during the work
- take a chance - to accept the risk of failure or loss
- take a dig at - to attack verbally
- take advantage of - to use something for one's own benefit
- take a look - to look at
- take a powder - to make a quick departure
- take a seat - be seated
- take care of - be responsible for; deal with
- take charge of - to assume control or direction of
- take for - to mistake for
- take for granted - to assume to be true without further investigation
- take French leave - to slip away from a place secretly and without saying good-bye to anyone
- take into account - to consider
- take it easy - don't get excited; don't hurry
- take it or leave it - to decide yes or no; accept or refuse
- take one's medicine - to accept one's punishment without complaining

- take pains (with something) - to be very careful when you are doing something
- take part - to participate
- take place - to happen; occur
- take potluck - to share as a guest an everyday meal without special preparation
- take sides - to join one group against another in a debate
- take someone under one's wing - to protect
- take steps - to begin to make plans or preparations
- take the bull by the horns - to take the initiative in confronting a difficult position
- take the cake - to be the best; to take the first prize
- take the floor - to rise and make a speech at a meeting
- take the words out of someone's mouth - to say something that someone else was about to say
- Take your time! - It is not necessary to hurry
- talk a blue streak - to talk on and on very fast
- talk in circles - to waste time by saying words that don't mean very much
- talk of the town - something very popular
- talk someone into - to convince somebody to ...
- talk someone out of - to convince somebody not to ...
- talk something over - to discuss
- talk through one's hat - to say something without knowing or understanding something
- talk turkey - to discuss in a straightforward manner; speak frankly and forcefully to
- tearjerker - a sentimental movie or novel
- teller - a person who works at the counter in a bank
- Tell it to the marines! = tell it to Sweeney - Tell it to a non-existent body because the story is so ridiculous no one is going to believe it; I don't believe you!
- tell stories - to lie
- tell tales out of school - to tell something that is secret
- ten-four = 10-4 - Do you understand?
- ten to one = two to one - almost certainly
- terrific - very good
- thanks to - with the help of
- That dog won't hunt! - That idea will not work!
- That figures! = That makes sense! = It means something! - That's the way it was expected; corresponds to expectations
- That makes me blue - That makes me depressed
- That rings a bell - it reminds me of something
- That's it! - That is the end!
- That's music to my ears - It sounds great to me; that's what I want to hear
- That's the rub! - That's the problem!
- That's the ticket! - Excellent, correct!
- That's the way the cookie crumbles! = That's the way the ball bounces - That's the way things seem to happen

- That's tough! - That's too bad!
- That won't wash with me! - It's not easy for me to believe
- The buck stops here ! - I'm the ultimately responsible person in this organization
- The cat did it! - I don't know who have done it and who is to be blamed
- the ins and outs - all the details
- the last straw - the last in a series of grievances or burdens that finally exceeds the limits of endurance
- the old man - your father or boss, etc.
- the real McCoy - the best of its kind, the real thing
- there is more than one way to get a pig to market = ... to flay a fox = ... to skin a cat - there are always different ways to fulfil a tough task
- there is no point in/to - there is no purpose in; there is no reason to (do something)
- the three R's - wRiting, Reading, aRithmetic - the three basic skills of elementary education
- Think carefully = Use your brains = Use your head! - Think intelligently! You ought to know the answer yourself
- think highly of somebody = think well of somebody - to admire somebody very much
- think little of - think that someone or something is not important
- think over - to think about something carefully
- This is a case in point - an example that proves something or helps to make something clearer
- This is a new territory for me - This is a new and unfamiliar situation
- throw away - to get rid of something unwanted
- throw cold water on = pour cold water on = dash cold water on - to discourage
- throw in the towel throw in the sponge = throw up the sponge - to quit in defeat; admit defeat
- throw one's weight around - to use one's position or influence openly
- throw one to the wolves - to send someone into danger without protection
- throw the book at someone - to give a person the maximum punishment
- tied up - busy
- tighten one's belt - to live on less money than normal; use less food
- time is running short - not much time remains
- time to kill - spare time
- tip of the iceberg - only a hint or suggestion of a much larger or more complex issue or problem
- tongue-in-cheek - not serious; ironic
- toot one's own horn - to praise oneself; to call attention to one's skill, intelligence, or success; to boast
- top man = top banana = top dog - a boss
- totally - very much
- tough cookie - a hardheaded person with whom it is difficult to deal

- tough nut to crack - a difficult problem to solve
- tough pill to swallow - something unpleasant to be endured
- tough problem - difficult problem
- toy teen - one less than fourteen (in NY)
- tricks of the trade - knowledge; skills; information known to those who perform a particular job
- trump card - something kept back to be used to win if nothing else works
- try on - test clothing before buying
- try out - test a product before buying
- try one's wings - to try out a recently acquired ability
- turn a blind eye to - to pretend not to see; not pay attention
- turn a deaf ear to - to pretend not to hear; not pay attention
- turn the tables - to change the situation just opposite
- two bits - 25 cents; a quarter of a dollar
- Uncle Sam - the US government
- under one's heel - in one's power or control
- under the table (the counter) - secret, illegal
- upbeat - cheerful; optimistic
- ups and downs - good and bad changes
- upset the apple cart - to ruin the plans
- up-to-date - current; as of this moment
- use one's brains = use one's head = use one's bean = use one's noodle = use one's noggin - to think intelligently; have common sense
- vanilla - plain
- veg out - to relax
- Wait a bit! - Wait a little
- Wait for the other shoe to drop - to await an event casually linked to the previous event.
- wake up and smell the coffee - to become alert and aware
- walk the chalk = walk the chalk line = walk the chalk mark - to act exactly as you are supposed to; behave properly
- warm-up - a preparation for a game or other activity
- Was my face red! - I was very embarrassed
- watch one's language - to be careful of your speaking; avoid saying impolite or vulgar things
- watch one's step - be careful
- watering hole - a bar
- water over the dam = water under the bridge - something that happened in the past and cannot be changed
- W-cubed - whatever, wherever and whenever you want
- wear one's heart on one's sleeve = pin one's heart on one's sleeve - to show your feelings openly
- wear two hats - to act in two or more jobs at once
- Welcome aboard! - Welcome to our group (team)!
- well put - expressed clearly
- wet blanket - a person or thing that keeps others from enjoying life
- wet noodle - a person with no energy, passive and inactive
- What are you driving at? - What do you mean? What is your point?
- What are you up to? - What are you doing?

- What do you do for a living? - What is your job?
- What do you have in mind? - What are you thinking of?
- What's cooking? - What's going on; what's happening?
- What's the good news? = What's the good word?
 - What's the latest news?
 - Why are you going so fast?
- What's the hurry?
- What's the weather like today?
- What's up? - What is going on?
- What time is it by your watch?
- wheelhorse - a reliable and industrious worker on whom one may depend
- wheels - a car or motorcycle
- when hell freezes over = when pigs fly - never
- where the shoe pinches - where or what is the discomfort or trouble
- whipping boy - the person who gets punished for someone else's mistake
- white elephant - an unwanted or financially burdensome possession, or a project that turns out to be of limited value
- windbag - one who talks too much; a boring person
- wipeout - a total failure
- wise guy - a person who acts as if he were smarter than other people
- work one's fingers to the bone - to work very hard
- work (something) out - to find an answer to a problem
- worry wart - one who worries about details
- X-rated - pornographic
- yak - to talk idly; chatter
- yak yak - a great deal of unnecessary talk
- yank - to bother, harass
- yes-man - a person or employee who tries to be liked by agreeing with everything said
- yoo-hoo - (a shout to attract attention)
- You are at the top of your class.
- You are a top student in the class.
- You are dead wrong - You are absolutely wrong
- You are doing very well - keep it up!
- You are going to be a great success
- You bet! - You can be sure
- You can take it to the bank! - You can believe it
- You can't teach an old dog new tricks - It's hard to train an older person to acquire new skill
- You did badly on your English test (exam).
- You don't say! - Really? Is that really true?
- You don't work hard enough.
- You failed your English exam.
- You guessed right! - You got the right answer
- You have a point - You are right
- You have brains - You are smart
- You know something! - I really want to say this to you!
- You made several careless mistakes.
- You must brush up on your English if you are going to use it.

- Your answer is not correct - try again!
- Your time is up - You have had all the time allowed
- You were a great help!
- yucky - terrible, distasteful, very unpleasant
- yummy - delicious
- zilch = zip - zero; nothing
- zillion = jillion = gazillion = bazillion - a large indeterminate number
- Zip your lip! - Keep something secret